

Origo adds UK client relationship manager

Stockholm (HedgeNordic) – Origo Capital, the Stockholm based activist long/short equity hedge fund manager, has added Teddy Belin as client relationship manager for the UK. Belin will take care of Origo's relationships with the UK community of institutional investors a press release states.

Teddy Belin has 25 years of experience within the asset management industry in roles including Head of Business Development, Managing Director and Portfolio Management. Belin spent several years as Nordic Consultant for London based Dexion Capital, a Specialist Consultant in the Hedge Fund sector advising a wide range of institutional clients on the selection of Hedge Fund products.

During the last 10 years, Belin has focused on Alternative Investments and Capital Raising/Consulting, serving UK and Nordic based firms.

Picture (c): Karramba-Production – shutterstock.com