A Fight for Recognition at the European Level

Stockholm (HedgeNordic) – More than a dozen Nordic hedge funds have been shortlisted for this year's HFM European Hedge Fund Performance Awards, an event that recognizes and rewards the best performing hedge funds in Europe. The winners across 45 categories will be announced on June 6 at Old Billingsgate in London.

The winners of the HFM European Hedge Fund Performance Awards will be picked by an expert panel comprised of institutional and private investors, as well as investment consultants. Shortlisted funds will be judged on both quantitative and qualitative factors.
