Gary Paulin

Partner Content (Northern Trust) - In this short webinar, Gary Paulin (Global Head of Integrated Trading Solutions) and Penny Biggs (Chief Strategy Officer, Corporate & Institutional Services) explore the impact of COVID-19 on financial markets and how it is driving a review of operating models across the industry. Does the reaction of market participants, particularly in the front office, show potential for lasting changes in governance and market interaction?

They discuss:

- Why the volatility created by COVID-19 is acting as an accelerant for existing market trends
- How industry response to the pandemic has the potential to bring about lasting changes in governance and market interaction
- The potential role of outsourced trading in supporting business resiliency and future growth
