

Webinar: Trade the Micro and E-mini contracts at CME Group

Partner Content (CME Group) – Last year, CME Group added Micro E-mini futures on equity indices to its suite of smaller-sized contracts, providing traders new opportunities to manage their portfolios. With strong liquidity and open interest growth since launch, learn why many traders are turning to Micros to trade equities, FX, and metals as well as E-mini contracts to trade oil.

In this webinar, join Dave Lerman to learn:

- Micros vs. ETFs — Comparing the two vehicles
- Taxation of futures vs. equities/ETFs
- Hedging mutual fund and ETF portfolios with Micros
- Precision scaling in/out of positions
- Contract highlights, liquidity, and more
