

Best Nordic CTA 2020

Stockholm (HedgeNordic) – Choppier markets have taken a toll on many managed futures funds in recent years. In the Nordic region, there were players in the CTA space that stood out of the crowd and delivered strong gains for investors both last year and over the previous years.

At 17:00 CET on Thursday, HedgeNordic announced the winners and runners-up in the “Best Nordic CTA” category supported by Efficient Capital Management. The three best-ranked funds in this award category are:

Winner:

Volt Diversified Alpha Fund

Second Place:

Lynx (Sweden)

Third Place:

RPM Evolving CTA Fund

Many congratulations to the winning funds! And a warm thank you to the members of the jury board, all supporting partners – with a very special appreciation to Efficient Capital Management.
